Read the following letter from A.F.G. Moscardi Esquire, I.C.S., Collector of Bellary, Ref. C No. 364/21-A=4, dated the 24th February 1921:-

H

X Ain Dis No 1508/20 In G.O. Mis. No. 1312 Revenue, dated the 7th June 1920 the Government sanctioned the retention for a further period of one year of the Stationary Sub-Magistrate on Rs. 125 plus a local allowances of Rs. 30 per mensem and of his establishment sanctioned in G.O. No. 227, Revenue, dated the 30th January 1919, for the taluks of Kudligi, Harpanahalli and Hadagalli in this district. The sanctioned period will expire by the end of this month. The system of having a Sub-Magistrate for the two taluks, to relieve the Tahsildars of Magisterial work, has worked satisfactorily. The work of the Magistrate has been sufficiently heavy, there having been 759 cases on his file during 1920 of which 225 were under the Town Nuisance Act. The Sub-Magistrate proposed the establishment of a court at each taluk head-quarters on the ground that besides the work being very heavy, the touring renders it inconvenient for the Magistrate as well as the parties concerned. The Sub-Collector considers that there is not enough work for two Sub-Magistrates, and that if the work is considered too heavy for one Magistrate, bench courts may be sanctioned at both the Taluk Head-quarters. I think, however, that the file is not so heavy as to justify the employment of two Sub-Magistrates nor is there enough work for one Magistrate and two benches. I recommend that the present system be continued for the present and the establishment be made permanent.

2. The present establishment will be continued after the 1st March 1921 pending orders on this reference.

Retention of Stry Sub Registrate Hadagalli & Harpanahalli

p1 c/f from the Regr High Court 808/21/710 3-2

Ir. n. s

The Board recommends the permanent retention of the Stry Sub Registrate, Hadagalli & Harpanahalli in the Bellary district vide Govt to Govt 1312 of 7-6-1920 - p6 2 notes flag H - which show that the necessity for the permanent employment of the SM was recognized but that it was thought better to keep the post temporary until the proposed increase of pay to Sub Registrates was decided. It has now been decided that Sub Registrates are to be put on a time scale 150-5-200. In the present case the Sub Registrate will presumably get the pay in the time scale he is entitled to + Rs 30 - local allowance sanctioned in the peculiar circumstances of the case - see para 6 on p2 of C/f in Govt no 227 Judl dt 30-1-19.

A draft order is submitted if may be sent to Law Dept & Fin for acceptance
